Lisa,

Thanks for your reply, I am not sure which contract details have to be examined, as a written formal contract is not required. I will not be paying £50 per vehicle, I will just explain to my customers the reason why the door panels are not removed within the city limits.

Regards,

The Licensing Team need to ensure that any costs associated with this additional process are covered and £50 has been determined to appropriately cover the cost of these process steps, this includes examining the contract details, inspecting the vehicle against our policy requirements as well as the administration process of updating our system, processing the fee and issuing an exemption certificate.
