NOTES

Disclosable Pecuniary Interests

The duties to register, disclose and not to participate in respect of any matter in which a member has a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest are set out in Chapter 7 of the Localism Act 2011.

Disclosable pecuniary interests are defined in the Relevant Authorities (Disclosable Pecuniary Interests) Regulations 2012 as follows –

Interest	Prescribed description
Employment, office, trade, profession or vocation	Any employment, office, trade, profession or vocation carried on for profit or gain.
Sponsorship	Any payment or provision of any other financial benefit (other than from the Council) made or provided within the previous 12 months (up to and including the date of notification of the interest) in respect of any expenses incurred by you carrying out duties as a member, or towards your election expenses. This includes any payment or financial benefit from a trade union within the meaning of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992.
Contracts	Any contract which is made between you, your spouse or civil partner or person with whom you are living as a spouse or civil partner (or a body in which you or they have a beneficial interest) and the Council (a) under which goods or services are to be provided or works are to be executed; and (b) which has not been fully discharged
Land	Any beneficial interest in land which is within the Council's area. For this purpose "land" includes an easement, servitude, interest or right in or over land which does not carry with it a right for you, your spouse, civil partner or person with whom you are living as a spouse or civil partner (alone or jointly with another) to occupy the land or to receive income.
Licences	Any licence (alone or jointly with others) to occupy land in the Council's area for a month or longer.
Corporate tenancies	Any tenancy where (to your knowledge) – (a) the landlord is the Council; and (b) the tenant is a body in which you, your spouse or civil partner or a person you are living with as a spouse or civil partner has a beneficial interest
Securities	Any beneficial interest in securities of a body where – (a) that body (to your knowledge) has a place of business or land in the Council's area and (b) either – i. The total nominal value of the securities exceeds £25,000 or one hundredth of the total issued share

- capital of that body; or
- ii. If the share capital of that body is of more than one class, the total nominal value of the shares of any one class in which you, your spouse or civil partner or person with whom you are living as a spouse or civil partner has a beneficial interest exceeds one hundredth of the total issued share capital of that class.

For this purpose, “securities” means shares, debentures, debenture stock, loan stock, bonds, units of a collective investment scheme within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and other securities of any description, other than money deposited with a building society.

NOTE: the requirements in respect of the registration and disclosure of Disclosable Pecuniary Interests and withdrawing from participating in respect of any matter where you have a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest apply to your interests and those of your spouse or civil partner or person with whom you are living as a spouse or civil partner where you are aware of their interest.

Access to Information

Agendas and reports can be viewed on the Gloucester City Council website: www.gloucester.gov.uk and are available to view five working days prior to the meeting date.

Recording of meetings

Please be aware that meetings may be recorded. There is no requirement for those wishing to record proceedings to notify the Council in advance; however, as a courtesy, anyone wishing to do so is advised to make the Mayor aware before the meeting starts.

Any recording must take place in such a way as to ensure that the view of Councillors, Officers, the Public and Press is not obstructed. The use of flash photography and/or additional lighting will not be allowed unless this has been discussed and agreed in advance of the meeting.

FIRE / EMERGENCY EVACUATION PROCEDURE

If the fire alarm sounds continuously, or if you are instructed to do so, you must leave the building by the nearest available exit. You will be directed to the nearest exit by council staff. It is vital that you follow their instructions:

- You should proceed calmly; do not run and do not use the lifts;
- Do not stop to collect personal belongings;
- Once you are outside, please do not wait immediately next to the building; gather at the assembly point in the car park and await further instructions;
- Do not re-enter the building until told by a member of staff or the fire brigade that it is safe to do so.

FOR GENERAL RELEASE

1.0 Purpose of Report

1.1 This report asks Council to confer the honour and title of Honorary Freeman of the City of Gloucester upon the Very Reverend Stephen Lake, Dean of Gloucester in recognition of his significant contribution and eminent services to the City.

2.0 Recommendations

2.1 Council is asked to RESOLVE that, pursuant to Section 249 of the Local Government Act 1972, the Very Reverend Stephen Lake, Dean of Gloucester, be admitted as an Honorary Freeman of the City of Gloucester in recognition of his significant leadership of the social, economic, environmental and spiritual regeneration of Gloucester and for re-affirming the Cathedral as a beacon of hope for all at the heart of the city, county and Diocese..

3.0 Background and Key Issues

3.1 In 2011, the Very Reverend Dean Stephen Lake was installed as the Dean of Gloucester Cathedral.

3.2 One of his first leadership tasks was to update the Cathedral’s Vision, confirming its ambitions to be “In tune with Heaven, in touch with daily life”. Throughout his time as Dean of Gloucester, Stephen has personally lived out this ambition:

- He chaired the Regeneration Advisory Board, which oversaw over hundreds of millions of pounds of investment in the city, and subsequently took over the chairmanship of the City Centre Commission.
- He has successfully delivered Project Pilgrim I over the past few years, working with a number of partners both within and outside of the city, and has laid the foundations for the successful delivery of Project Pilgrim II in coming years.

- 3.3 During his time as Dean of Gloucester, Stephen has ensured that the Cathedral, its community, staff and volunteers have worked closely with partners – particularly Gloucester City Council – to further the goals and aspirations of its inhabitants including:
- Founding and chairing Gloucester’s Heritage Forum.
 - Supporting Gloucester City Council and Gloucester Culture Trust to secure and deliver the Great Place scheme.
 - Supporting the development and delivery of the Cathedral Quarter High Street Heritage Action Zone.
- 3.4. Gloucester Cathedral is now seen and talked about as “Your Cathedral”: it belongs to those of all faiths and none and its heritage and cultural contributions to the life of Gloucester are notable. With worship having taken place on its site for over 1,000 years and with over 400,000 now visiting each year, the Cathedral is also Gloucester’s anchor tenant, playing an important part in the economic life of the city.
- 3.5 By establishing a vision of a 21st century Cathedral delivering social, economic, environmental and spiritual regeneration, Stephen has ensured that Gloucester Cathedral uses its great assets to benefit the widest possible audience
- 3.6 As Stephen embarks on his new journey as the next Bishop of Salisbury, the Council is delighted to confer upon him the title of Honorary Freeman of the City of Gloucester, in recognition of his significant leadership of the social, economic, environmental and spiritual regeneration of Gloucester and for re-affirming the Cathedral as a beacon of hope for all at the heart of the city, county and Diocese.
